THE PROBLEM

Today's conventional healthcare system is disconnected, driving high costs and poor outcomes, failing to support holistic patient health.

01 Disconnected Care

Physical, mental, and social health are disconnected in Conventional Medicine, leaving root causes untreated so the average person just gets sicker.

02 High Costs

At $3.6 trillion or $11,172 per person, the U.S. spends more on healthcare than any other country...

03 Poor Outcomes

Yet 87% of Americans die from chronic, preventable, and lifestyle-driven diseases.

THE SOLUTION

Meet Kenshō
Health, the first
*provider discovery platform and healthcare navigator
for holistic medicine.*

* Journal of Alternative and Complementary Medicine

 Journal of General Internal Medicine

01 Connected Care

Holistic medicine addresses the full picture of patient health by connecting physical, mental, and social wellbeing.

02 Lower Costs

Holistic medicine has been shown to lower patient costs by 10%. *

03 Healthier Patients

Americans who use holistic medicine are 64% more likely to report their health improved from the previous year. **
